VALENCIA COUNTY MAN ACCUSED OF STEALING CATTLE AND HORSES

Joe Remerita, a well known young man of San Rafael, Valencia county, under $500 bond for investigation by the grand jury on a charge of cattle and horse stealing, having been arrested Thursday afternoon by E. E. Van Horn of the New Mexico Cattle Sanitary board and Rafael Gomez, of the New Mexico mounted police. Remerita was arraigned before a justice of the peace yesterday, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury.

The trial will be held tomorrow, Sunday morning, with services in the Immaculate Conception church, Father Bertrand, S. J., officiating. Burial will be in Santa Barbara cemetery.

MRS. BALDOSARI IS DEAD AS RESULT OF TERRIBLE BURNS

Woman Who Was Unfortunate Victim of Gasoline Blaze Thursday Night, Dies After Suffering Fearful Agony.

MADE HEROIC STRUGGLE: BORE PAINS BRAVELY

After suffering intense agony for nearly 36 hours, Mrs. Gregorio Baldosari, who was severely burned as the result of a gasoline explosion at 4 o'clock Thursday evening, died at St. Joseph's hospital at 4:30 this morning. Mrs. Baldosari was fatally burned as the result of the explosion of a gasoline stove, with which she was attempting to get supper for her husband, Paciente Baldosari, a well-known hotel chef. The shooting flames which followed the explosion enveloped the woman in fire and she was so badly burned that many parts of her body were charred and blackened. The wonder of it all is how Mrs. Baldosari lived so long as she did. The unfortunate woman never lost consciousness, but suffered throughout the 36 hours before death with rare bravery and fortitude. Believing in the Catholic faith, Mrs. Baldosari was consoled by the reception of the sacraments and the administering of the last rites on Thursday night by Rev. Father Bertrand of the Immaculate Conception church.

Mrs. Baldosari was 31 years old, born in Chiliti, N. M., and the daughter of Charles Dallas. The Baldosaris lived in Albuquerque at 608 North Twelfth street, at which place the gasoline explosion occurred Thursday evening.

The funeral will be held tomorrow, Sunday morning, with services in the Immaculate Conception church, Father Bertrand, S. J., officiating. Burial will be in Santa Barbara cemetery.

The Churches

First Presbyterian Church, Corner Fifth and Silver, Hugh A. Cooper, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. At the morning hour the pastor will preach the first sermon in series on "The Church of Today."

The special theme for this series will be the cause and claims of the church. The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Every boy and girl of this city should attend some Sunday school. A judge in sentencing a boy in Kansas City looked over at his father and said, "You are to blame for this boy's conduct. You have allowed him to run the streets and never sent him to the Sunday school." The Young People meet at 7 p. m. There will be special music at each service. Mr. Charles Andrews, choir director, Miss Evelyn Kenworthy, organist. The public cordially invited.

Highland Methodist Church South 118 South Alvaro. Samuel E. Allison, pastor. Dr. W. F. McMurray, D. D., secretary of the church. The Southern Methodist church will fill the pulpit, both morning and evening. The choir is arranged by special analysis. This congregation is going to make tomorrow a red letter day. Mr. Allison will urge all the members of this church to attend both these services and hear Dr. Murray and take over the new church enterprise. He urges the friends of this church to hear this gifted man. He will also a treat. If you fail to hear him, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. A cordial welcome and a pressing invitation to all.

Salvation Army. Sunday services 7 a. m. meet after 11 Holloway, 2 p. m. Sunday school 3:30 open all day. Captain Wendell will speak subject "The Prodigal Son". The morning service at 8 a. m. by Herman P. Williams. Will be on the theme "Repentance". A general invitation will be extended to the public.

Gold and Broadway Christian Church. The morning sermon at 11 a. m. will be preached by Capt. Wendell. The "Prodigal Son". The morning service at 8 a. m. by Herman P. Williams. Will be on the theme "Repentance". A general invitation will be extended to the public.
